Photoshop is a raster image editor (ri) designed primarily for digital imaging. Photoshop can open, modify, and save a large variety of image file formats, including the industry standard TIFF, RAW, and JPEG images formats. There are three main tools available in Photoshop that make editing images easier: the tools palette, the paintbrush, and the Channels palette. Photoshop's Tool Palette enables you to make changes to the digital image

It is an easy-to-use program which can be used with a mouse or touchscreen. It is more suitable for beginners and users with no prior Photoshop experience. Q: Matching an image in an imageView I am working on a messaging app and have an imageView set as the "button" image. What I would like to happen is once the user taps on the imageView the app will go to another activity. But, instead of actually tapping on the imageView I would like to say "Once you see this image you are supposed to take a selfie, then text it to your friend" and then once the user has taken the selfie and entered the message the app will go to the next activity. The part that I am having issues is how to say "go to this activity when you see this image". Here is the activity code (sorry I cut out a lot but that was the gist of it): private void sendMessage (View v) { String text = Edit Text.getText().toString(); if

(!text.isEmpty()){ Log.e("LOG", "SEND MESSAGE"); Intent myIntent = new Intent(this, AddMessage.class); myIntent.putExtra("message", text); //---------- startActivity (myIntent); } } View v would be something like: ImageView messaging How do I tell the if statement to see if the image I'm looking at is equal to the one in the code. A: If you just want to access the photo, you could pass a reference to the ImageView object to your onActivityResult() method and get the Bitmap from it. @Override protected void onActivityResult(int requestCode, int resultCode, Intent data) { super.onActivityResult(requestCode, resultCode, data); if(requestCode == YOUR_REQUEST_CODE && data!= null && resultCode == RESULT_OK) { Bitmap bitmap = (Bitmap)

data.getExtras().get("data"); // do something with the bitmap } } Preparedness Copper Lake, NS is one of eight sites where
